

October 12, 2009

It Happened One Weekend: Chelsea Mansion Debuts, Owners Become Renters, LES Elevators Not Kosher?

by Joey

1) The West Chelsea market has recently given us the \$20 million penthouse, but is it ready for the $20 million townhouse? Developers snatched up an old house with an artsy history for $6.1 million, completely rebuilding the innards while preserving the historic details. Now the five-story, 25-foot-wide Greek Revival house at 436 West 20th Street is on the market. Plans for a rooftop addition with a garden are making their way through the Landmarks Commission.

